DENVER--(EON: Enhanced Online News)--Goode Sisters, Marjie Goode and Terri Goode have recently unveiled a novel invention that makes the perfect gag gift. Recipients report symptoms of uncontrollable laughter and instantaneous mood elevation. And who couldn't use a deep belly laugh in these tough times.

"Terri and I know firsthand that laughter can be the best medicine to get through the tough times," said Marjie Goode, co-founder of Quotes On Board, LLC.

It all began years ago when Terri said to Marjie, "If I ever get married again . . . hit me over the head with a 2x4." Many moons later Terri accepted a marriage proposal. An engagement party was thrown to celebrate. Laughter erupted as she opened Marjie's funny gift. It was an actual 2x4. Printed on it were the words, "If I ever marry again..." Even the fiancé laughed.
